Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Up With People was incorporated in 1968 as an independent, non-profit educational organization; and,

WHEREAS, Up With People maintains five international casts, each composed of approximately 110 students from throughout the world; and,

WHEREAS, Up With People's goal is that someday young men and women from every nation may have the opportunity to spend a year in this nonsectarian, apolitical program so that together they may contribute to a more peaceful world; and,

WHEREAS, Up With People's aim is to encourage understanding among people of all nations through an international educational program; and,

WHEREAS, Up With People involves young men and women from many countries who travel for a year and learn from the people and places they visit while staging a musical show; and,

WHEREAS, Up With People believes that music is one of the best means for young people to communicate their enthusiam for life, as well as their concerns and hopes for the future; and,

WHEREAS, Up With People students participate in interrelated activities which provide them with an experiential education during their 32,000-mile tour; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor of South Dakota to recognize these young ambassadors of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8 through 13, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

THOMAS G. LECKEY, DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE
